HOTEL ROYAL HOI AN

Right next to the charming Hoi An Accent Town and bordered by the tranquil Thu Bon River, stands the Hotel Royal Hoi An, MGallery by Sofitel inspired by the centuries old love story of princess Ngoc Hoa and Japanese Merchant Araki Sotaro.

Featuring 187 luxurious yet modern and artistic rooms and suites, two signature restaurants, a delightful spa, modern meeting facilities and the mosaic-tiled swimming pool. Hotel Royal Hoi An is an ideal hideaway for luxury romantic breaks, families' vacations or inspiring events.

INSPIRED BY LOVE STORY

Hotel Royal Hoi An MGallery by Sofitel is a place of heritage and romance. Design inspiration comes from the story of Sotaro Araki, a famous 17th-century merchant from Nagasaki who visited coastal Vietnam during its period as a booming trade destination.

On one of his visits, Sotaro fell in love with Princess Ngoc Hoa of Hue - Vietnam's former imperial capital, a little north of Hoi An. Their marriage, regarded as the first between a Vietnamese citizen and a foreigner, forever linked the two cultures.
